

LAST COMBI AND SUNDAY TICKETS AVAILABLE FOR SIXTEENTH EDITION AWAKENINGS FESTIVAL ON 25 AND 26 JUNE

On Saturday 25 and Sunday 26 June, Spaarnwoude Houtrak resound to the 16th edition of Awakenings Festival, the best-known and largest outdoor techno festival in Europe. Stages, including two large outdoor ones, will be set up in eight spacious areas. At this time only combi-tickets for the weekend and separate tickets for the Sunday are still available. Saturday tickets have sold out.

SUNDAY

The day for Techno in all its diversity. Alongside the very greatest names in the contemporary scene, as always there's plenty of room for new talent, new sounds and the latest, most trendsetting development in the field of lighting, sound and decor. Among those appearing are Jeff Mills and Marco Carola, while stages on Sunday will be hosted by Joris Voorn & Friends, Drumcode, Richie Hawtin and Electric Deluxe.

There's no Awakenings without producer and DJ Joris Voorn & Friends. Voorn (who graduated as an interior architect but has spent fifteen years working full-time with music) will of course present his own set, as he also does on Saturday, but he provides a stage for e.g. DJ Kölsch, KiNK (live) and Michel de Hey & Ici Sans Merci too.

Drumcode is the label founded in 1996 by Adam Beyer. Among those he is bringing with him is Alan Fitzpatrick, but Nicole Moudaber and Victor Calderone will also be sharing the stage in Area V. Drumcode has its roots in Sweden, but in the last twenty years Drumcode has grown worldwide to be a respected label and platform.

Richie Hawtin is the hosting partner of Area Y and is bringing e.g. Maceo Plex and The Martinez Brothers to Spaarnwoude. Hawtin was born in the UK, but moved to Detroit with his parents. There he took his first steps in his DJ career.

Electric Deluxe is the platform for the Rotterdam DJ Speedy J, who has showcased progressive techno in all its facets since 2008. Among those we can expect at Electric Deluxe is Voices of the Lake (live), a popular act during major festivals.

The Saturday, which can still be visited with the combi-tickets, also offers the mix so characteristic for Awakenings. A small selection from the names announced: Adriatique, Henrik Schwarz (live), Loco Dice, Dave Clarke, Ben Klock, Nina Kraviz and Joseph Capriati. Awakenings has also made a start to conquer the rest of the world. By hosting stages at festivals in e.g. Australia and India and with indoor editions in cities like New York, Santiago, Antwerp, London and Manchester, the name and fame of Awakenings is spreading worldwide.

The complete lineup can also be seen on www.awakeningsfestival.nl. You can also buy both combi-tickets and Sunday tickets for Awakenings Festival 2016 there.
